SHARJAH BIENNIAL REVEALS PARTICIPANT LIST FOR 13TH EDITION

The Sharjah Biennial has announced the sixty artists and groups participating in its thirteenth edition. Curated by Christine Tohme, the biennial will initiate conversation and artistic production and will draw thematically on four keywords: water, crops, earth, and culinary. The biennial also involves four other sites: Dakar, Senegal; Ramallah, Palestine; Istanbul, Turkey; and Beirut, Lebanon.

Tohme, the founding director of Ashkal Alwan in Beirut, recently contributed a piece highlighting the “Best of 2016” to the December issue of Artforum. As was previously reported here, the biennial’s subtitle is “Tamawuj,” an Arabic word meaning a swelling, surging, or fluctuation.

The artists and groups participating in the upcoming biennial are as follows:
